Also, great coaches visited us; but we have to make a special mention to Vicente del Bosque; who was visiting regularly the COTIF Tournament as Principal of Real Madrid's school of football; after, he has come for many years as a lecturer; and as national coach and has become, over time, our greatest guarantee and the best ambassador of COTIF worldwide.

Without doubt, this edition will be held in a difficult situation because the international economic crisis. But it was never a good idea to give up. On the contrary, supporting events undoubted potential, of undoubted athletic, social and cultural weight, represent an injection of faith in the future and therefore, for this 35th edition of COTIF we want to improve the project; in consequence, the tournament will have 12 days of competition; with 12 participating teams and they reach to play a total of 25 matches.
